ABOUT

Located in Saronno city centre, an historic market town just outside Milan, Officina Faré is a place for making, living and growing: it was built in 1950s and was run independently for 60 years by a family of artisans and metalworkers who worked and lived closely to their families.

Today, it is attracting a growing network of highly skilled traditional and innovative makers' aimed at re-vitalising the economic, social and cultural fibre of our communities through ingenious making and resource sharing.
